

Toronto CADORA presents

Chris Irwin

Developing the Happy Dressage Horse the Chris Irwin Way

Date: Thursday, July 24, 2008 at 6:30 p.m.

Location: Pine Ridge, 14290 Weston Road, King City
(north of King Side Road)

Cost: CADORA members $35; Non-members: $45

(Includes entrance and light refreshments, including dessert. Memberships available at the door)

Registration opens June 21 and closes July 17. Contact:
Pam Hope at pamhope@rogers.com or call 905.642.2865

Is your horse fearful or lacking in confidence? Is your horse aggressive and making your partnership difficult? What about the horse who has a hard time staying straight or focused on its work? Internationally renowned Canadian horse trainer, Chris Irwin, presents an informative and inspiring evening, including demonstrations, focused on these issues as they relate to the Dressage horse.

MEMBER CONTEST

Does your horse need some Irwin time? Submit your name and horse partner particulars, including age, breed and problem, by email to pamhope@rogers.com by 6 p.m. Monday, July 7. One lucky winner (and a reserve) will be drawn on Tuesday, July 8. Visit www.torontocadora.com for details.

Toronto CADORA wishes to acknowledge and thank Chris Irwin for his donation of time and financial resources toward the club's new educational mandate. We would also like to thank Gary and Jeannie Vander Ploeg for donating the use of Pine Ridge for this event.

Chris Irwin DVDs and books available at this event!

Door prizes generously sponsored by
York Saddlery and Harness,
Red Scarf Equestrian, Fold-a-Cart and Pony Up

